CRITIC OF THE MOVIE FURY

BY YVON THOMAS

SOME INFORMATIONS ABOUT FURY...

Plot and Summary

Fury is a 2014 American war film written and directed by David Ayer, and starring a lot of famous actors like Brad Pitt, Shia Labeouf, Logan Lerman, Michael Pena, Jon Bernthal, Jason Isaacs and Scott Eastwood.

In April 1945, the Allies lead the final fight in Europe and especially who is the last goal to end the war. But in WW2 American tanks were outgunned and out armoured by the most advanced German tanks. In this situation sergeant Wardaddy (Brad Pitt) commands a Sherman tank and his five-man crew on a deadly mission behind enemy lines. At this moment they receive a young soldier called Norman to replace the death of one of their soldier. He has to do his job with his teammates without any experience to survive together.

WHY I'VE CHOSEN THIS MOVIE ?

I've chosen this movie because these is one of the best war movie that I've ever seen ! All the scenes from this movie are always more realistics, the soundtracks are also amazing and finally the characters are very well played by all the actors who makes this movie a masterpiece for me.

WHY I RECOMMEND IT ?

First of all, I like films which are a real reconstruction of the second world war and this movie is a good example of that. In my opinion this movie is a masterpiece by its precision and its atmosphere but some scene are just a little bit too much for me. I love this movie and highly recommend. If you are a fan of action and war film like me, I recommend it !
